As I have related to you on other occasions at I am deeply interested in taking an active part in the task of preserving worl peace and maintaining our national security. It has been my conviction since I first applied for a posi in the CIA in 1954 that this was the organization in which I could best invest myself, however, repeated inquiries coupled with new arguments have produced neg results, and I am reluctant to make further inquiry in the face of their stated results and I am reluctant to make further inquiry in the face of their stated results and I am reluctant to make further inquiry in the face of their stated results and I am reluctant needs of the moment. On the other hand I do not consider this a preclusion to the CIA or any similar governmental agency. I think I rightfully belong in one of those governmental agencies charged with the responsibility of keeping the world peace and holdin our country secure. I am asking for an opportunity to serve in one of those agent and an thoroughly prepared to give myself completely to this cause.			61-58
